2 SEC. 1535. SENSE OF SENATE	E ON IRAN.
3 (a) FINDINGS.—The	Senate makes the following
4 findings:
5 (1) General David	d Petraeus, commander of the Multi-National Force Iraq, stated in testimony before a joint session of the Committee on Armed Services and the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives on September 10,

1 2007, that "[i]t is increasingly apparent to both coa-2 lition and Iraqi leaders that Iran, through the use 3 of the Iranian Republican Guard Corps Qods Force, 4 seeks to turn the Shi'a militia extremists into a 5 Hezbollah-like force to serve its interests and fight 6 a proxy war against the Iraqi state and coalition 7 forces in Iraq''. 8 (2) Ambassador Ryan Crocker, United States 9 Ambassador to Iraq, stated in testimony before a 10 joint session of the Committee on Armed Services 11 and the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives on September 10, 2007, that 12 13 "Iran plays a harmful role in Iraq. While claiming 14 to support Iraq in its transition, Iran has actively 15 undermined it by providing lethal capabilities to the 16 enemies of the Iraqi state". 17 (3) The most recent National Intelligence Estimate on Iraq, published in August 2007, states that 18 19 "Iran has been intensifying aspects of its lethal sup-20 port for select groups of Iraqi Shia militants, par-21 ticularly the JAM [Jaysh al-Mahdi], since at least 22 the beginning of 2006. Explosively formed pene-23 trator (EFP) attacks have risen dramatically". (4) The Report of the Independent Commission 24

on the Security Forces of Iraq, released on September 6, 2007, states that "[t]he Commission con-1 2 cludes that the evidence of Iran's increasing activism in the southeastern part of the country, including 3 4 Basra and Divala provinces, is compelling... It is an 5 accepted fact that most of the sophisticated weapons being used to 'defeat' our armor protection comes 6 7 across the border from Iran with relative impunity". 8 (5) General (Ret.) James Jones, chairman of 9 the Independent Commission on the Security Forces of Iraq, stated in testimony before the Committee on 10 11 Armed Services of the Senate on September 6, 2007, that "we judge that the goings-on across the Ira-12 13 nian border in particular are of extreme severity and 14 have the potential of at least delaying our efforts inside the country. Many of the arms and weapons 15 16 that kill and main our soldiers are coming from 17 across the Iranian border". 18 (6) General Petraeus said of Iranian support 19 for extremist activity in Iraq on April 26, 2007, that "|w|e know that it goes as high as [Brig. Gen. 20 21 Qassem | Suleimani, who is the head of the Qods Force... We believe that he works directly for the 22 23 supreme leader of the country". 24 (7) Mahmoud Ahmedinejad, the president of Iran, stated on August 28, 2007, with respect to the 25

- United States presence in Iraq, that "[t]he political power of the occupiers is collapsing rapidly. Soon we will see a huge power vacuum in the region. Of course we are prepared to fill the gap".
 - (8) Ambassador Crocker testified to Congress, with respect to President Ahmedinejad's statement, on September 11, 2007, that "[t]he Iranian involvement in Iraq—its support for extremist militias, training, connections to Lebanese Hezbollah, provision of munitions that are used against our force as well as the Iraqis—are all, in my view, a pretty clear demonstration that Ahmedinejad means what he says, and is already trying to implement it to the best of his ability".
 - (9) General Petraeus stated on September 12, 2007, with respect to evidence of the complicity of Iran in the murder of members of the Armed Forces of the United States in Iraq, that "[t]e evidence is very, very clear. We captured it when we captured Qais Khazali, the Lebanese Hezbollah deputy commander, and others, and it's in black and white... We interrogated these individuals. We have on tape... Qais Khazali himself. When asked, could you have done what you have done without Iranian support, he literally throws up his hands and laughs

- and says, of course not... So they told us about the amounts of money that they have received. They told us about the training that they received. They told us about the ammunition and sophisticated weaponry and all of that that they received'.
 - (10) General Petraeus further stated on September 14, 2007, that "[w]hat we have got is evidence. This is not intelligence. This is evidence, off computers that we captured, documents and so forth... In one case, a 22-page document that lays out the planning, reconnaissance, rehearsal, conduct, and aftermath of the operation conducted that resulted in the death of five of our soldiers in Karbala back in January".
 - (11) The Department of Defense report to Congress entitled "Measuring Stability and Security in Iraq" and released on September 18, 2007, consistent with section 9010 of Public Law 109–289, states that "[t]here has been no decrease in Iranian training and funding of illegal Shi'a militias in Iraq that attack Iraqi and Coalition forces and civilians... Tehran's support for these groups is one of the greatest impediments to progress on reconciliation".

- (12) The Department of Defense report further states, with respect to Iranian support for Shi'a extremist groups in Iraq, that "[m]ost of the explosives and ammunition used by these groups are provided by the Iranian Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps—Qods Force... For the period of June through the end of August, [explosively formed penetrator] events are projected to rise by 39 percent over the period of March through May".
 - (13) Since May 2007, Ambassador Crocker has held three rounds of talks in Baghdad on Iraq security with representatives of the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran.
 - (14) Ambassador Crocker testified before Congress on September 10, 2007, with respect to these talks, stating that "I laid out the concerns we had over Iranian activity that was damaging to Iraq's security, but found no readiness on Iranians' side at all to engage seriously on these issues. The impression I came with after a couple rounds is that the Iranians were interested simply in the appearance of discussions, of being seen to be at the table with the U.S. as an arbiter of Iraq's present and future, rather than actually doing serious business...Right now,

1	I haven't seen any sign of earnest or seriousness on
2	the Iranian side".
3	(15) Ambassador Crocker testified before Con-
4	gress on September 11, 2007, stating that "[w]e
5	have seen nothing on the ground that would suggest
6	that the Iranians are altering what they're doing in
7	support of extremist elements that are going after
8	our forces as well as the Iraqis''.
9	(b) Sense of Senate.—It is the sense of the Sen-
10	ate—
11	(1) that the manner in which the United States
12	transitions and structures its military presence in 13	Iraq will have critical long-term consequences for the 14	future of the Persian Gulf and the Middle East, in
15	particular with regard to the capability of the Gov-
16	ernment of the Islamic Republic of Iran to pose a
17	threat to the security of the region, the prospects for 18	democracy for the people of the region, and the
19	health of the global economy;
20	(2) that it is a vital national interest of the 21	United States to prevent the Government of the Is-
22	lamic Republic of Iran from turning Shi'a militia ex-
23	tremists in Iraq into a Hezbollah-like force that
24	could serve its interests inside Iraq, including by

1	overwhelming, subverting, or co-opting institutions
2	of the legitimate Government of Iraq;
3	(3) that it should be the policy of the United
4	States to combat, contain, and roll back the violent
5	activities and destabilizing influence inside Iraq of 6	the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, its
7	foreign facilitators such as Lebanese Hezbollah, and
8	its indigenous Iraqi proxies;
9	(4) to support the prudent and calibrated use
10	of all instruments of United States national power
11	in Iraq, including diplomatic, economic, intelligence,
12	and military instruments, in support of the policy
13	described in paragraph (3) with respect to the Gov-
14	ernment of the Islamic Republic of Iran and its
15	proxies;
16	(5) that the United States should designate the
17	Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps as a foreign
18	terrorist organization under section 219 of the Im-
19	migration and Nationality Act and place the Islamic
20	Revolutionary Guards Corps on the list of Specially
21	Designated Global Terrorists, as established under
22	the International Emergency Economic Powers Ac
23	and initiated under Executive Order 13224; and
24	(6) that the Department of the Treasury should
25	act with all possible expediency to complete the list

- 1 ing of those entities targeted under United Nations
- 2 Security Council Resolutions 1737 and 1747 adopt-
- 3 ed unanimously on December 23, 2006 and March
- 4 24, 2007, respectively.
